

Halvorson New Media Holds An Organize And Prioritize Workshop June 27th

A workshop, Organize & Prioritize: "Solepreneur" tools to get things done and stay on track," will be offered from 6 to 7 p.m. on Wednesday, June 27th at the Maxt MakerSpace in Peterborough.

Solopreneurs are business owners who wear every hat in the company. That means they have to work as efficiently as possible. Two creative solopreneurs, Chris Halvorson of Halvorson New Media and Nnette Perrotte of Lux Lifestyle, will present 20 or more easy, inexpensive and/or free tools they use to run their one-person businesses.

Halvorson has run her own social media agency since 2006, and Perrotte since 2013. Both are tech geeks and professional presenters who love sharing their tips and tricks to give everyone the confidence to embrace the solo entrepreneurial life.

Attendees will be invited to share their own tips, so all can build their knowledge base.

The cost for this workshop is $30. To register, visit <https://organizeprioritize.eventbrite.com>.

Seth Clark Memorial Golf Tournament

The annual Seth Clark Memorial Golf Tournament will take place on Saturday, June 30th at the Bretwood Golf Course, located on East Surry Road in Keene, with a shotgun start at 8 a.m.

Community members and interested tournament participants may consider a tax-deductible donation to sponsor a hole in the amount of $175.

A steak and chicken cookout will take place after the tournament. The tournament's entry fee is $120 and includes greens fees, a cart, cookout, and prizes.

Clark passed away on September 3, 2005, at the age of 21 from injuries sustained in an automobile accident. He loved sports and was a four-year varsity starter at Monadnock, where he received MVP and All-State Honorable Mention his senior year.

Those interested in donating can mail a check to: Monadnock Marauders, c/o Todd Snowling, 25 Bank Street, Keene, NH 03431.

The money raised will go to local sports programs to assist them in furthering their endeavors and to give back to the community. The proceeds may also be used in making improvements to the football fields.

For those who love to laugh, Lewis Black will bring The Joke's On Us Tour to the theatre September 22nd; Paula Poundstone will offer smart observational humor and spontaneous interaction with the crowd October 8th; New Hampshire's Juston McKinney will perform November 27th; North Shore Comedy will take the stage January 26th; and the world's foremost all-male comic ballet troupe, Les Ballets Trockadero Des Monte Carlo, will perform on February 23rd. The Second City will perform social and political satire April 5th.

Theatre-goers of all ages will enjoy Mutts Gone Nuts November 18th and Cirque Mechanics: 42Ft – A Menagerie of Mechanical Marvels December 9th. Russian National Ballet will perform Cinderella March 24th.

Those seeking something a little different may be interested in Step Afrika! blending percussive dance styles, African traditional dance, and influences from a variety of other dance and art forms. They will perform February 8th.

The Colonial Theatre will once again partner with The Metropolitan Opera to present the Met Live in HD's 2018-2019 season. Broadcast in high definition on the largest screen in the Monadnock Region, Met Live performances offer awe-inspiring singing and orchestration, lavish costumes, and spectacular scenery.

Like most non-profit organizations, The Colonial Theatre relies on donations for part of its operating budget. The support of members is crucial to the continued success of The Colonial.

Tickets for The Colonial's season will be available to new and renewing members from June 25th through July 10th, and to the general public on July 9th. For more details, see the flyer in this week's paper or visit www.thecolonial.org.
